Application to Renew Bail License

Form 431-1B (Rev. 4/2004)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Please read the following information carefully to expedite the issuance of your license renewal application:

- Failure to complete ALL portions of the renewal application will result in a delay in the processing of your license renewal.
- The bail agent renewal fee is based on the number of active surety company appointments on file. If you wish to terminate any appointments, attach a request with your original signature to your renewal application, indicating which surety company appointment(s) you wish to cancel.
- If you are a bail agent and have no active surety company appointment on file, you will need to submit a surety company appointment along with a signed form filing, and $241.
- A valid bail bond or deposit is required to be on file with this department in order to renew any bail license.
- If you have moved, complete a change of address form which can be accessed from our website at www.insurance.ca.gov, and attach it to your renewal application.
- Completing all continuing education requirements at least three months prior to the expiration date of your license will avoid delays in the processing of your renewal application.
- The certificate of completion issued to you by the continuing education provider is for your records only. Unless otherwise instructed, do not submit this document to this department.
- To check your continuing education hours, you may visit our website at www.insurance.ca.gov or you may call our 24-hour Interactive Voice Response System at (800) 967-967-9331 or (916)322-3555 to hear your hours and/or receive a fax of those hours.
- Pursuant to California Insurance Code Sections 1810(b) (4) and (5), all shareholders, officers, and directors of a corporation shall be licensed bail agents, and shall be disclosed to the department. Any sale or transfer of stock or other interest in the corporation shall require the prior approval of the department. Form 437-25, Bail Agent Change of Corporate Stockholder, Officer, or Director, can be accessed from our website.
- A bail corporation is required to have at least one active bail agent employee in order to solicit, negotiate, or transact any bail business.
- All fees are filing fees and are not refundable, whether or not the renewal application is acted upon, per Section 1751.5 of the California Insurance Code
- The application with appropriate fees must be postmarked by May 1st of this year. If postmarked between May 1st – and June 30th, an additional delinquent fee of 100 percent is due. If the license is not renewed by June 30, the licensee will have to refile. Until June 30th of the next succeeding year, the filing fee shall be twice the normal filing fee.

WARNING: The terms of this renewal may be limited by the Family Support Law, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 11350.6.
